This is in response to your Regional Administrative Remedy Appeal of the Warden's response dated March 6, 2014. You are requesting prior custody credit for time spent serving a state sentence.

We have investigated your appeal and agree with the Warden's response to you. You were released to the United States Marshals via a writ of habeas corpus on May 12, 2008, while serving a state sentence in the custody of the Alabama Department of Corrections, to face federal charges. You were sentenced in federal court on August 20, 2008, to a term of 120 months. This sentence was ordered to run concurrent to the state sentence you were serving at the time this sentence was imposed. You received a nunc pro tunc designation, which effectively started your federal sentence on August 20, 2008, the day it was imposed while in the primary custody of the state.

Title 18 U.S.C. 3585(b), Credit for Prior Custody, states, "Defendant shall be given credit toward the service of a term of imprisonment for any time he has spent in official custody prior to the date the sentence commences . . . that has not been credited against another sentence." Program Statement 5880.28, Sentence Computation Manual-CCCA, states, "Time spent in custody under a writ of habeas corpus for non-federal custody will not in of itself be considered for the purpose of crediting presentence time. The primary reason for writ custody is not the federal charge. The federal court merely 'borrows' the prisoner under the provision of the writ for secondary custody." The time which you are requesting was time spent actually serving your state sentence, which per statute cannot be applied as jail credit. A federal sentence cannot begin before it is imposed by the federal court. Your computation is computed correctly according to Bureau of Prisons policy, statutory provision and judicial order.

Based on the above information, your request for administrative remedy is denied. If dissatisfied with this response, you may appeal to the Office of the General Counsel, Bureau of Prisons, 320 First Street, NW, Washington, D.C., 20534. Your appeal must be received in the General Counsel's Office within 30 days of the date of this response.

U.S. District Court

Re: FOSTER, Benjamin Shane
Reg. No. 12258-002
Docket Nos. 3:07cr150-01-MHT, 2:08cr48-01-MH1

Dear Judge Thompson:

On August 20, 2008, Benjamin Shane Foster was sentenced by the Court to a 120-month term of confinement for Felon in Possession of a Firearm. At the time the federal sentence was imposed, Mr. Foster was under the primary jurisdiction of state authorities in Indiana, and in federal custody pursuant to a Writ. The respective Judgment and Commitment Order was silent regarding its relationship with any forthcoming action in the state of Indiana. Following sentencing, Mr. Foster was appropriately returned to the custody of state authorities, and the U.S. District Court Judgment was filed as a detainer with the State of Alabama.

On October 8, 2008, Mr. Foster was sentenced in Randolph County, Alabama, Case Number(s) CC07-98, CC07-99 and CC07-115 to a 10-year term of confinement for Burglary, Theft of Property and Assault. Mr. Foster satisfied the state sentence and released to the federal detainer on June 17, 2001, to commence the service of his federal sentence as provided by Title 18 U.S.C. § 3585(a).

Mr. Foster now requests that the Bureau of Prisons (Bureau) designate the state institution for service of his federal sentence, thereby reducing the total amount of time spent in custody. Such a retroactive designation is made only after the review of all relevant factors under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3621(b).

The Bureau strives to administer sentences in accordance with federal statute, Bureau policy and the intent of the sentencing court. It is the Bureau's preference that the federal sentencing court be given an opportunity to state its position with respect to a retroactive designation, which, while not binding, can be helpful in our determination to grant or deny the request. If, after 60 days, a response has not been received from the Court, the Bureau will complete its review and make a decision regarding this case.

Should the designation be granted, the Bureau will commence Mr. Foster's sentence on August 20, 2008. This would result in his release from Bureau custody on or about March 14, 2016. Should the Bureau deny the request, he will continue to a current projected release date of March 30, 2020. If the Bureau makes a decision, based on a review of all relevant 3621(b) factors, which is contrary to the Court's stated position, the Court will be notified accordingly.

Please advise us at your earliest convenience, as to the Court's position on a retroactive designation in this case. Should additional information be necessary, please contact Jeffrey Carson, Operations Manager, at (972)595-3129.

Sincerely,

for Jose A. Santana
Chief
